Consent Letter for Personal Data Processing
In Accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 (For Job Applicants)

To comply with the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 (2019), Sahamitr Pressure Container Public Company Limited needs to request your consent and inform you for the purpose of processing your personal data. As the owner of the personal data, you should be aware that your personal data will be kept confidential and secured with appropriate standards.

By this letter, I, ..., as the "Job Applicant", consent that Sahamitr Pressure Container Public Company Limited and/or its affiliates ("Company"), can collect, gather, use, or disclose my personal data. More details about the processing of personal data can be found in the "Privacy Notice for the Employees" attached to this Consent Letter or in the Privacy Notice provided from time to time by the Company.

☐ I have read and understood the details and various purposes stated in the Privacy Notice for the Employees.

 You can choose whether to give consent or not. You can subsequently freely and voluntarily withdraw your consent. *****

☐ I consent ☐ do not consent that the Company can collect my sensitive personal data for the purpose of job application and employment acceptance.

I consent that the Company can collect my sensitive personal data, such as religion, blood type (if it appears on the copy of the Thai ID card), race, nationality, health information, disability status, fingerprint information, face recognition, and my qualifications for interview invitation, job interview, good conduct record certification, as well as selection process, and approval for employment acceptance or for selecting per any suitable position or for assistance in seeking and finding necessary data and information as to myself to assess and meet qualifications for me to work for the Company, as such acquired and sought personal data may be of help to the requested job position I am applying for (in case you do not consent for the Company to collect religion and blood type data appearing on the copy of the Thai ID card, please cross out such data from the document before submitting it to the Company).

☐ I consent ☐ do not consent that the Company can record or keep my sensitive personal data for the Company's future job vacant position selection.

In case I do not finally enter into an employment contract with the Company, I hereby consent that the Company can collect all my personal data received during the application process for future job vacant position selection for further contacting for any position suitable for me.

I have thoroughly read and understood the Company's Privacy Notice. In witness whereof, I have signed this letter below.
